		0x4B13A (Table: history; Size: 339968 bytes)	Dela Kvinnan, som jobbade som sjuksköterska på psykiatriska kliniken på Centrallasarettet i Västerås, anklagas för att ha tagit strypgrepp på en patient under en tvätt i oktober i fjol. Det är hennes två kollegor, som var med vid tvättningen, som rapporterade den påstådda misshandeln. Kvinnan själv hävdar att hon är oskyldig och att hon inte medvetet skadat någon. I januari avskedades hon, två och en halv månad efter händelsen. Enligt lagen får inte arbetsgivaren åberopa fall som de känt till i mer än två månader. Polisens förundersökning lades ner eftersom brott inte kunde styrkas. Sif tycker att landstinget har handlat fel. - Kvinnan har inte gjort något fel. Hon tvättade en stökig och bråkig patient, det är allt. Förundersökningen blev nedlagd och ändå straffar man henne på värsta sätt, säger Helena Hedlund, förbundsjurist på Sif. Sif yrkar hos Arbetsdomstolen om skadestånd till kvinnan på 100 000 kronor, för brott mot anställningsskyddslagen. Kvinnan mår psykiskt dåligt och har varit sjukskriven sedan avskedandet. Helena Hedlund befarar att det kan ta upp till ett år innan förhandlingarna i arbetsdomstolen kan börja. Share
The woman, who worked as a nurse at the psychiatric clinic at the Central Hospital in Västerås, is accused of strangling a patient during a wash in October last year. It is her two colleagues, who were involved in the washing, who reported the alleged abuse. The woman herself claims that she is innocent and that she did not knowingly harm anyone. In January, she was fired, two and a half months after the incident. According to the law, the employer may not invoke cases that they have known about for more than two months.
The police preliminary investigation was canceled because crime could not be proven.
Sif thinks that the county council has acted wrongly.
- The woman has not done anything wrong. She washed a messy and noisy patient, that's all. The preliminary investigation was closed and she is still punished in the worst way, says Helena Hedlund, federal lawyer at Sif.
Sif is suing the Labor Court for damages to the woman of SEK 100,000, for violating the Employment Protection Act.
The woman is mentally ill and has been on sick leave since the dismissal.
Helena Hedlund fears that it may take up to a year before the negotiations in the labor court can begin.

Researchers saw hybrid meetings: "Is very difficult"
Hybrid meetings are a lousy form of meeting to be able to make decisions and reach consensus. That is the opinion of KTH researcher Jens Edlund.
Debate
Debate: Time to scrap the personal letter
In job applications, the personal letter means only one way to categorize candidates according to prejudiced views. It's time to scrap it, writes Johanna Näyhä, who works with HR issues.
Union
Several benefits of a special union club for managers
Even managers may need to have their own union support at work. But the Union's executive clubs are few. An exception is Systembolaget, which has around 20.
